Semiahmoo Resort is about 10 miles from the U.S.–Canada border, 30 miles south of Vancouver, British Columbia and 115 miles north of Seattle. The Resort occupies a natural wildlife preserve on the edge of Semiahmoo Bay with Mount Baker rising beyond the harbor. The seaside hotel features a full-service spa, a year-round outdoor pool, and is located two hours from Mount Baker or Whistler ski areas.

Getting There:

Driving: Semiahmoo Resort is approximately 115 miles from Seattle (2 hours). See Google Maps for driving directions.

Air:

Fly into Seattle or Vancouver and rent a car. Sea-Tac Airport is located 130 miles (200 km) from Semiahmoo. Vancouver Airport is located 40 miles (60 km) from Semiahmoo. If coming from Vancouver, a valid passport is required to cross the US/Canada border. All major rental car companies are available at either airport.

Connect by air through Seattle to Bellingham. Bellingham Airport is the closest airport to the Semiahmoo Resort. It is located about 24 miles south of Semiahmoo in the town of Bellingham, WA. The airport is serviced by Horizon/Alaska Airlines (<http://www.alaskaair.com/>) with regular commercial flight service from Sea-Tac Airport in Seattle.

Direct flights to Bellingham. Allegiant Air has direct flights from cities in California, Las Vegas, and Phoenix (<http://www.allegiantair.com/aalIndex.php>).

Shuttle from Bellingham Airport: We will have a university shuttle available from Bellingham Airport to Semiahmoo on Sunday March 21 and return Wednesday March 24. Please contact Eric Grau (grau@uw.edu) by March 15 with your flight information if you need a shuttle ride.

Taxi from Bellingham Airport: Taxi from Bellingham Airport to Semiahmoo is approximately $50-$60 one-way.
